

Tamala Mallett Moore, MD, MBA, ABFP

Sr. Director / Head, Safety Evaluation Group
Global Pharmacovigilance and Epidemiology
Sanofi Pasteur
1 Discovery Drive
Swiftwater, Pennsylvania, USA

Business/Pharma Executive with extensive clinical background. Builds strong cross-functional teams, and leads dynamic discussion to find innovative and efficient avenues to solve complex issues while navigating global regulations and public scrutiny.

Experience spans across Adult and Pediatric Vaccines, Pharma across multiple therapeutic areas, Veterinary health, Consumer brands and Medical Devices with additional expertise in emerging models in health care and government and its broad impact on industry. Currently responsible for clinical and post-marketing activities for Influenza, Pneumococcal, Meningococcal, HIV and C. Difficile vaccines.

Well versed in risk management - medical affairs and quality issues focused in area of clinical trial, Internal / external product recalls, labeling / packaging changes, negotiations with FDA. Prior experience – supported and guided Advisory Committee Meetings with FDA.

Current responsibilities include strategic planning of global and domestic operations in pharmacovigilance, working with boards, steering committees and working groups internally and externally.